

Relationship between NCTE Standards and English Major Coursework Components

SPA Program Review, June, 2012

Descriptions of each of seven English major components are within the matrix below relevant to particular NCTE Standard indicators. X indicates NCTE standard is addressed in the cluster of courses.

IDOE	NCTE	9 courses in the required major or 36 semester hours	Component ENG 240* Literary analysis; writing intensive	Component ENG 243 ENG 244 ENG 245 ENG 246 ENG 265 ENG 327 ENG 330 ENG 331 ENG 334 ENG 350 Early survey courses	Component ENG 351 ENG 352 creative writing	Component ENG 247 ENG 322 ENG 324 ENG 325 ENG 326 ENG 338 ENG 339 Survey-American, short story; African American Literature, contemporary	Component ENG 353 ENG 354 ENG 356 Special topics-advanced	Component ENG 471* ENG 461 Senior thesis or Seminar-culminating	Component ENG 499* Oral & written comprehensive exam	Varied Candidate Assessments
8	1.1	NCTE Target Standards Program of study has clear framework, current theory and practice in English language arts	X Expectations for frameworks used in literary analysis and writing	X Definitions and critique of tragedy, comedy, play, text, performance	X Writing process including working thesis, multiple drafts, peer	X Giving voice to an experience that all readers need to understand	X Special topics are based on theory or framework taught in previous	X Culminating research must include proposal, thesis, plan of attack, primary and	X Structured on independent scholarship, retention of terminology, literary history,	Survey course assessments include critique and interpretation based on framework such as

	3.5.1	Knowledge of works representing a broad historical and contemporary spectrum of U.S., British and non-West literature		X Common thread beginning with gateway course	X	X	X Student research represent broad historical and contemporary spectrum	X Churchill, Linney, Hayao, Russo	X Retention of reading and course specific concepts, discipline's terminology, literary history is assessed	X Oral and written analysis of works assessed across course clusters
3	3.5.2	Knowledge of works from variety of genres, cultures, female and authors of color		X	X	X	X All research must consider place of topic in the broader view of genre, culture, and diverse authors		X Retention of reading and course specific concepts, discipline's terminology, literary history is assessed	Assessed particularly in American and contemporary survey courses
3	3.5.4	Knowledge of works of literary theory and criticism and their effect on reading and interpretive approaches		X Frameworks and theory assessed in this entry level course	X	X	X Presentations focus on theory, criticism, and interpretive approaches	X What it means to designate or challenge a work as classic, cannon, and ways in which	X Retention of reading and course specific concepts, discipline's terminology, literary history is assessed	Rubrics are derived from ENG 220; discussion, formal presentation, papers

